We can find a little cliché to give back and forth to each other for the rest of the session and I'm willing to do that. And if the fountainhead is to be poisoned, let it be poisoned this afternoon, and let us say what we really think and how we really feel, and that's the kind of environment which, as uncomfortable as it makes some people, is really more honest because there is not the pretense of respect, consideration, or collegiality, as some people...

SENATOR COORDSEN: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...will use those terms.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Before we proceed, do you have items for the record, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: I do, Mr. President. I have a series of items. Senator Lindsay has two amendments to LB 1188 to be printed; Senator Bernard-Stevens to LB 1050; Senator Wickersham, LB 1050; Senator Pirsch to LB 1311; Senator Schimek to LB 1155. Mr. President, Enrollment and Review reports they have examined engrossed LB 906, and find the same correctly engrossed, LB 908, LB 909, LB 933, LB 938, LB 967, LB 973, LB 1001, LB 1002, LB 1008, LB 1035, LB 1047, LB 1048, LB 1072, LB 1073, LB 1108, and LB 1123, all reported correctly engrossed. Mr. President, Business and Labor Committee reports LB 1013 to General File. Education reports LB 1178 to General File; LB 1023, General File with amendments; LB 1299, General File with amendments; and LB 812, indefinitely postponed; and LB 999, indefinitely postponed; and LB 1234, indefinitely postponed. Business and Labor, LB 1392, indefinitely postponed. That's all that I have, Mr. President. Thank you. (See pages 1044-53 of the Legislative Journal.)

SENATOR COORDSEN: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. Next speaker, Senator Wesely. Senator Wesely. Senator Wesely waives off. Senator Witek.

SENATOR WITEK: Senator Coordsen, members of the Legislature, Senator Chambers, I have to agree with you on this one, and I will tell you why, for a couple of reasons. Recently, we had some discussion in our committee about, the Constitutional Revision Committee, and that was one area that brought a lot of this to light in my mind, an oversight on the part of some, but
